

RJI Steering Committee Notes 9.16.18

Attending: Jasmine, Regina, Dan, Mike

- What we did not cover
 - Web page update for RJI
 - RJI Bulletin Board
- CFA, FAM, RJI interrelatedness
 - The roles and relationships may evolve this year as FAM is just beginning and direction of RJI Steering has not been defined as group yet
 - Jasmine related the three main aspects of FAM
 - Rapid Action Response
 - Spiritual Practice in relation to action/reflection
 - Open to community participants outside of UUCWC
- Praxis material/notes
 - It was decided it would be good for all members of steering group to read/review the notes from the Praxis group as some of the work of Steering Group moving forward we expect will be informed by the Praxis information.
 - Need to give access to the Google docs for those not in Praxis prior
 - We gave ourselves the assignment of reading this material before the October meeting
- 8th Principle Follow Through
 - We spent most of our time discussing this and felt one of the main tasks for the RJI group this year is to assist the UUCWC community in truly adopting the principle in the workings of our groups, committees, relationships.
 - Discussion of providing some training/education for leadership groups such as Committee chairs; and some discussion on what those leadership training requirements would be
 - Continue processing through small group the aftermath of Auction?
 - Discussion of dealing with the feedback on what happens when we as a system adopt the racial justice lens, and its impact on individuals as well as group process
 - Discussion on where we would start this support/education/training process
 - Right relations Comm.
 - Council
 - Committee and other groups
