The Board of Trustees held its winter Retreat on March 3. During the retreat a short Board meeting was held. The following motions were passed:

In sharing the concern that has been expressed by many members of the congregation, the board directs the Auction Committee to change the theme to one that does not misappropriate another's culture.

The motion was made John and seconded Nathalie. The motion passed unanimously

The board passed a motion to send a thank you note to those who contacted the board about their concerns about the auction theme of Fiesta. The following wording was agreed upon to express the sentiments of the board:

The Board appreciates your persistent bravery and constant love for the church that enabled you to help change our perspective about the Auction theme. It is people like you who move us to our goal of decentering whiteness.

The motion was made Marianne and seconded Nathalie. The motion passed unanimously.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ed Dobrowolski
Secretary, Board of Trustees
