ONLINE AUCTION 2020

Bid May 2 through May 9!

Unitarian Universalist Church at Washington Crossing
Titusville, New Jersey
www.uucwc.org

Fun! Food! Fellowship!

The 2020 Auction is a Fun-raiser and Fundraiser all in one, and this year it is online! The auction proceeds are a significant source of funding for UUCWC's annual operating budget. Through the auction offerings provided by our generous members and local businesses, you will find opportunities to create community and celebrate life. UUCWCers know how to enjoy food and fellowship and have fun!

Our annual Auction celebrates each of us, our minister and staff, our new members and longtime friends, our common goals and principles and all that we hope to achieve in the coming years. At UUCWC, we have big dreams both for within our doors and outside of them. If there is a surplus of auction revenues after meeting the targeted budget amount, 50% of that surplus will be donated to a social justice program. This year, the Council for Faith in Action has designated the recipient as Isles, a nonprofit community-building and environmental organization based in Trenton with the mission of advocating and fostering self-reliant families and healthy sustainable communities. You can read more about their work at www.isles.org.

Leading up to the Online Auction are several months of careful planning, and thoughtful donations of time, energy, financial support and fun, creative ideas that will sustain our community through the coming year. We both bond in fellowship and support UUCWC financially, always mindful of our eight principles and our declared purposes as a congregation.

While some items may require rescheduling or will be reimagined as "virtual" or video events, we encourage buyers and sellers alike to be flexible with our challenging circumstances and directives to follow social (physical) distancing for our health and safety.

This program book is your guide to the many wonderful services, physical items, meals and special events included in our 2020 Auction. There are dinners, concerts, trips, skilled services, discussion groups, art, "how-to" events and so much more. Please study the program book and use it to guide you through the online bidding.

With your support we can achieve so much! If you are a new member, we extend a special invitation to you and hope that you will participate in the many auction events.

A Message from Rev. Sue Goodwin, Minister for Congregational Life

Above the doors of our wonderful church, I see the sign: "Create Community. Celebrate Life. Change the World." These ideals, excerpted from our mission statement, are ones that I can certainly embrace. I'm sure you can, too. We are blessed to have hardworking volunteers and committed staff members seeking to do just that. The vibrancy of this church can take my breath away. Folks here are so engaged, so willing to work together to accomplish our goals, so aware that their contributions matter, especially when we are facing challenging circumstances. It makes us value UUCWC that much more. This church, this community life we have built together, this auction...none of it would be the same if you were not participating.

It takes a village to run a Spring Auction and I want to thank each of the hardworking members of the Auction Team as well as its leaders. They plan this event well in advance and this year took on the new challenge of setting up an online bidding process. The fruits of this team's tireless work create income we use to support our function and mission. In fact, the auction revenues are a significant portion of the annual budget. When you next see an Auction Team member or leader, please offer your thanks for all that they do.

Enjoy the auction itself while in the comforts of your own home, "Sanctuary in place." There is something for everyone. From dinners in congregants' homes to movies to babysitting, the bounty of this auction is remarkable. Scope out your treasures, do your best to win something that "brings you joy" (Marie Kondo!). Most of all, settle in and enjoy the opportunities to get to know one another through an event or service. In the bidding for your favorite items, lean into the richness of this community. Make a new friend or two.

Even though the church doors may be closed, we can show that "church" is not just about the building. We will be here waiting for you.

PHYSICAL ITEM DONATIONS

We will not be collecting any items for display; instead we are pleased to provide photos in this book and online. After the auction online bidding closes on May 9, please contact the auction team at auc-tion@uucwc.org to facilitate delivery of the item from donor to winning bidder.

ITEM CATEGORIES

Raise a Paddle — Support the Auction Item #100

In this extraordinary year, the UUCWC annual auction has moved online for the first time. While striving to build community and provide fun things to look forward to when we can be together again, this move has involved extra costs and an uncertain funding outlook. If you are able, please donate to the auction and “raise a paddle” to help defray costs and help meet our financial goals.

So...what does raise a paddle mean? At live auctions, the paddle is used for bidding. While we don't have an auctioneer to see your bid, click on this item and choose your amount. Unlimited winners for this category...be one! Thank you for your anticipated support.

As in previous years, there are two main sections: Fixed-Price, which includes meals, some custom foods and events and Competitive Bidding, which includes services, physical items, and gift cards to local businesses.

The Fixed-Price meals are among the most popular auction offerings, and often go quickly each year. In response to many requests to make the fixed price meals accessible to more people, we ask that for the first 12 hours of the online auction, each household consider purchasing no more than two meals in the Fixed-Price category (item numbers in the 100s — the Buy Now-Hosted Meals). After this time, you will have through May 9 to check back in and bid as often as you like!

A special category (item numbers in the 300s) has been established for events with large capacities over 20 winners, and these items are not included in the limitations on purchases for the first day of online bidding.

Fixed-Price Purchases (Items 100s, 200s, 300s) Buy Now

100s: themed dinners in UUCWC members' homes or local restaurants, specially prepared foods, movie nights, workshops.

200s: events and fixed-priced services.

300s: events with more than 20 spaces.

We will issue certificates to the buyers for your records and follow up with the donor.

Competitive Bidding (Items 400s, 500s, 700s)

There is an option of “Win It Now.” If you opt to pay for a specified amount above value, you may select “Win It Now” and it ensures your successful bid.

400s: find services (such as handyman), custom food to be delivered, memberships or tickets to cultural places, special trips and more. We will issue certificates for the item to be collected by the winning bidder from the donor.

500s: includes physical items such as hand-crafted tables, jewelry, theme baskets and more.

700s: includes gift cards, many of which were donated by local businesses. Please see the listing of our business sponsors at the back of the book and be sure to thank them for their generosity!

STEP ONE FOR THE ONLINE AUCTION IS REGISTRATION

Beginning on Sunday, April 19, you may register through the UUCWC website link to the Auction. The link will be on the Auction page, www.uucwc.org/spring-auction/. We will hold the registration period open for the two weeks preceding the activation of the online Auction on Saturday, May 2 at 10:00 am.

The registration process is simple. Similar to other online ordering sites, you must create a password. You will be asked to provide a credit card. You will have the option to switch to a different card should you receive notification that you are a lucky winner. At this time, UUCWC does not accept American Express.

ONLINE AUCTION MAY 2, 10:00 am THROUGH
SATURDAY, MAY 9, 12:00 midnight

Categories

In addition to each item having a number, you will be able to find items by categories as well such as Cultural, Dinners, Games/Sports, Home Accessories, Jewelry/Health/Beauty, Trips, and Workshops.

Features

The Auction Online website will highlight special items and will also indicate items that are currently without any bids — you might be the lucky one! Keep your eye on the front page, it might change!

Online Bidding Tips!

Getting the items you want in the auction takes some planning. Here are great tips from veterans.

Before the Auction:

- Get your bidder number early (when you register online, a number will be assigned to you).
- Use your auction book to plan ahead. Mark the items you will go for first. This year we ask that you limit fixed-price purchases on the first day of online bidding (May 2) to 2 meals (items in 100s). This will give more people a chance to win.

- Check your calendar in advance for dinner and event dates. There is a convenient list of all events by date in the back of the auction book.
- Check the online site to view the items in convenient categories.
- Watch the website for the most recent bid and items that are marked “No Bid.”

Want to win a big item? Pull together a team and:

- Agree on your maximum bid.
- Designate one person to bid for your team.
- Pick one payer to settle the account.

After the Auction:

- You must settle your auction account with the closing of the Auction on May 9, midnight. You will receive an email notification when you have a winning bid, and will have time to confirm the processing of your credit card.
- If you win a meal, event or service, we will mail or e-mail your certificate(s) to you. The certificate will give you all the information you need to add the event to your calendar or to make your arrangements with the donor.
- The Auction Team will help to facilitate getting the physicals items from donor to winning bidder.

Thank you for your participation in the Auction 2020 Online and good luck!

#234 Time for Some Political Humor

Laugh out loud. Plan to attend "This Is the Week That Is", a rollicking series of sketches satirizing national and regional politics. Presented by 1812 Productions at the Plays and Players Theatre on Delancey Street in Philadelphia. If you like "The Daily Show", Bill Maher and Steven Colbert, then you're going to love this hilarious presentation of the current political news. Make a day of it. See the sights in Philly, grab a bite to eat and then head for a fun evening of live theater. The show runs from mid-November through the end of December 2020. Pick the performance date that works for you. Offered by Sue and Steve Saddlemire. Fixed price $50 per ticket. 4 winners. Date: TBD.

#235 Knife-Sharpening Workshop July 26

Don't get caught with dull knives at your next holiday feast! Would you like to cleanly slice through a tomato without crushing it? Jarrett Jung, a classically trained chef and Mary Lou Dahms' son, will demonstrate knife-sharpening in this informative workshop. Try sharpening with your own whetstone and honing steel or observe Jarrett's technique and expertise. Prior to the workshop, you will receive information on purchasing your own equipment if you are interested in doing so. After the knives are put away, wine and light hors d'oeuvres will be served in the Dahms' home in Newtown, PA. Fixed price $35 per person. 8 winners. Date: Sunday, July 26, 2020 at 2:00 pm.

#236 That Drawing Place June 15 on Zoom

Drawing is as much an act of meditation as an artistic practice. And in fact, this isn't about making art. This is about sitting down and being in that drawing place. Being present. Seeing in the way that's unique to you. Trust yourself. You can do this. Oddly enough, it will be impossible to do it wrong. You'll surprise yourself. This "virtual" workshop led by Susan Colket will require you to have the following: Supplies: 1. Standard blank copy paper 8.5". Your favorite pen, and 3. A quiet place with an internet connection and a device to join the Zoom call, and perhaps a cool drink. The 90-minute session will be held on the anniversary/birthday of Saul Steinberg, the brilliant illustrator and New Yorker cartoonist. Fixed price $25 per person. 9 winners. Date: Monday, June 15, 2020 on Zoom, 7:00 pm.

#237 Health Care Coverage Advice — Over & Under 65

Facing a decision about your health care coverage sometime this year? Perhaps you are leaving or changing employment and are looking at Medicare for the first times or changing plans. Or if you need to pick a plan and find that trying to decide makes you want to move to Canada, then stop and consult with George Faulkner, retired health care benefits consultant. He will help you and provide whatever it takes to help decide what is best for you, just as he has helped other UUCWC members obtain good, affordable coverage in recent years. References can be made available. Fixed price $40 per person. 5 winners. Date: TBD

#238 Buzz on Books 5th Edition Oct 17

Michele Ruopp and Chris Piatek invite book lovers to the fifth (very popular) book swap, at Michele's home in New Hope, PA. Come share a beloved book and leave with another. #523 Chalice Stained Glass #1

This exquisite stained glass piece is handmade and custom designed by our own Pat Czerwotka in the Tiffany style. The piece (12-inches square) highlights a flaming chalice in the middle of two intersecting circles. The chalice is a deep brown glass that has an abundance of shades. The flame of the chalice is a mixture of rich reds to show movement through the style and cut of the glass. These forms are surrounded by a textured semi-clear glass that is cut to highlight the intersecting circles and then are framed in colored glass, with a zinc metal frame for strength. The piece has a black patina finish on the lead lines and zinc frame. It features two points to hang with a chain. The panel may be purchased as is or you may customize the glass frame color and/or the lead and zinc patina (silver or copper) that is right for your setting. A custom piece will require 2-weeks' delivery. This item was extremely popular in prior years, here is your chance to own a beautiful chalice! Valued at $125. 1 highest bidder wins.

#524 Chalice Stained Glass #2

This exquisite stained glass piece is handmade and custom designed by our own Pat Czerwotka in the Tiffany style. The piece (12-inches square) highlights a flaming chalice in the middle of two intersecting circles. The chalice is a deep brown glass that has an abundance of shades. The flame of the chalice is a mixture of rich reds to show movement through the style and cut of the glass. These forms are surrounded by a textured semi-clear glass that is cut to highlight the intersecting circles and then are framed in colored glass, with a zinc metal frame for strength. The piece has a black patina finish on the lead lines and zinc frame. It features two points to hang with a chain. The panel may be purchased as is or you may customize the glass frame color and/or the lead and zinc patina (silver or copper) that is right for your setting. A custom piece will require 2-weeks' delivery. This item was extremely popular in prior years, here is your chance to own a beautiful chalice! Valued at $125. 1 highest bidder wins.

This Zen music box, with falling beads that strike the bell chimes, will help to ground you for meditation or provide a welcome focused break during the day reminding you to breathe. Excellent for children at night time to help promote calming sleep. The beautiful cherry wood box has been carefully restored and is offered for your "sanctuary in place" by Holly Bussey and Jim Sanders. Listen here: <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=TcXIXZG8IWc> Valued at $40.00...peace of mind is priceless!

#543 Creativity Bundle

A bagful of materials to inspire your creativity, or to answer the question, "what can we do now." Includes a tie-dye kit, fabric markers, floss for friendship bracelets, origami paper, to modeling clay and tools, cookie cutters, pencils and pastels and more, all in a handmade tote bag. Wow! This will keep everyone busy. Offered by Lynne Quinto and Scott Umlauf and valued at $100.

#544 Swan Neck Hoe

The "Old Farmer's Almanac" says it's easier to kill 100 weeds when they are 1 inch tall than to kill 10 weeds when they are 10 inches. Weeds should be "cultivated" with a hoe that shuffles easily along the soil surface uprooting tiny weeds which quickly dry and die. Al Johnson has used dozens of hoes and this swan neck hoe is his favorite — and he should know, as the tender of UUCWC's Allie's Garden! This hoe should last a lifetime for the lucky winner. Valued at $60.

#545 Indigo Bunting Porcelain Figurine

#548 Bundle of Books for Racial Justice #1

The Racial Justice Ministry offers a carefully chosen selection of books. This bundle includes: "Black Man in a White Coat: A Doctor's Reflection on Race and Medicine" by Damon Tweedy, M.D. On several best-book lists, this profound memoir grapples with race, bias and the unique health problems of black Americans. "Citizen". An American Lyric" by Claudia Rankin. In essay, image, and poetry, Citizen is a powerful testament to the individual and collective effects of racism in our contemporary, often-named "post-race" society, and the book is a winner of a number of awards and best-book citations. "Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States" by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz. The first history of the United States told from the perspective of indigenous peoples. This 2015 Recipient of the American Book Award is the UU Common Read for 2019-2020. "Such a Fun Age" by Kiley Reid. This debut novel is a page-turning and big-hearted story about race and privilege, set around a young black babysitter and her well-intentioned employer. The value of this bundle is $80.

#549 Bundle of Books for Racial Justice #2

The Racial Justice Ministry offers a second carefully selected "Bundle of Books" including: "Black Is the Body: Stories from My Grandmother's Time, My Mother's Time, and Mine" by Emily Bernard. It is twelve deeply personal, connected essays detail the author's experiences and is the winner of the Christopher Isherwood Prize for Autobiographical Prose. "Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? And Other Conversations About Race" by Beverly Daniel Tatum, who is an authority on the psychology of race. This fully revised edition of her classic book argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about enabling communication across racial and ethnic divides. "The Water Dancer" by Ta-Nehisi Coates. This debut novel by the author of "Between the World and Me" is a bold work about a magical gift, a devastating loss, and an underground war for freedom. "Welcome to Braggsville" by T. Geronimo Johnson. This is a dark and provocative comedy about four UC Berkeley students who stage a dramatic protest during a Civil War reenactment. To quote the NY Times, Johnson "knows just which dark corners to expose, which cultural buttons to push, which ironies to illuminate and how to whirl an affecting yarn all the while." The value of this bundle is $80.

#550 Lovebird Heart Necklace

Romance is in the air with this special necklace on a silver chain. The heart, recognized everywhere as a symbol of love and compassion, is joined with a dove, the universal sign of innocence and peace.
